

Birchington CE Primary School

Due to the National lockdown, many of our children have been learning at home. They have been working remotely using plans uploaded by their teachers. Below are a few examples of some creative work the children have been doing. We are so proud of all our children, whether they are currently learning at home or at school.

