

In year 6 this term we learnt about Isaac Newton and his investigations that enabled us to understand that light is linked to colour. We created our own colour wheels and predicted what would happen when we spun the wheel.

