

Science Investigation

In Year 3 the children learnt about magnetism.

They used different magnets and tested their strength by seeing how many metal paperclips they could hold in a chain and they investigated which materials were magnetic.

They then used their knowledge to design and create magnetic board games.

