

Science Investigation

In Year 3 the children have been learning about forces. They investigated the effects that different surfaces had on how far a wheeled vehicle would travel. They learnt and understood the importance of friction.

