

Science

Year 3 have been learning about Animals: Including Humans and they have studied the human skeleton. They had to construct their skeleton, getting everything in the right place and then correctly label each of the bones.

