

Science

Year 5 visited our new Peace Spiral when learning about how plants reproduce.

They looked at the different plants and identified whether the produce sexually or asexually.

