

Science

In Year 5 the children have been learning about wind resistance during their topic on forces.

They investigated how fast they could run from one end of the playground to the other, once whilst holding an open bin liner to catch the wind and once without the bin liner.

The children were able to draw conclusions from their investigation.

