

Design Technology Assessment

Design Technology will be assessed inline with the school assessment policy and work will be marked regularly in accordance with the marking grid and policy. These will be checked against the DT program of study and skills guide and inform any future planning of lessons. Key skills will be assessed regularly and revisited.

The children will have the opportunity at the end of each topic to evaluate and assess the product they have created and designed and these evaluations will help inform future lessons.