

Design Technology

In Year 4 the children have been practising how to join different materials. They used a needle and thread to experiment with different stitches before designing and making their own Christmas decorations from felt.

