

Design Technology

In Year 5, the children researched ancient Mayan clothing. They created their own designs and then had to cut, dye and sew cloth to reproduce their item. They had to consider how to join their materials to ensure that they could still be worn.

