

Design and Create Your Own Signature Burger

Name of my burger: _____

You have been asked to design and create your own signature burger by a local burger store.

- Name your burger and try to come up with unique, flavour combinations.
- What meat (or vegie-version) will your burger be made of?
- What type of bun/bread will you serve it in?
- Will you have any toppings on top of the bun itself?
- Will you have any vegetable toppings?
- What sauces will you have?
- Cheese or no cheese? Which cheese?
- Is there a theme to your burger ingredients?
- Are you aiming your burger at a particular customer group?
- Will you cater for any special diets?

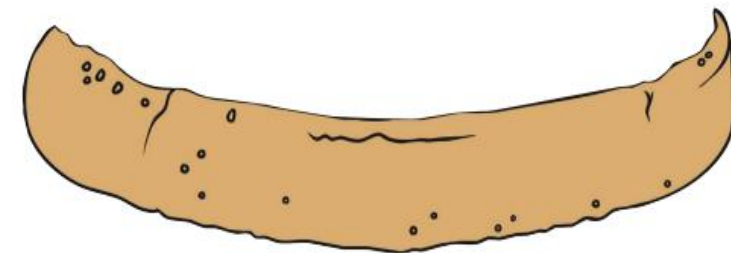

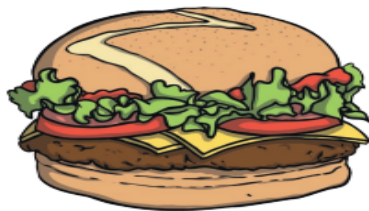

Don't forget to label the fillings in your burger!

You might write why you've chosen these ingredients to fit your theme or your customer group.

Did you know?

The first hamburger originated in Hamburg, Germany. It wasn't quite like modern burgers, it was more like a roasted steak on toast. However, the burgers that we have come to know and love today are more similar to the hamburger introduced at the 1904 World Fair in the United States of America.
