INTERPRETING HISTORY Aim 6	The three Prime ELGS of Communication and Language, PSED and Physical Development provide the foundations of which all other learning is built upon. Specific: Past and Present ELG Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling.	Use stories to encourage children to distinguish between fact and fiction. Compare adults talking about the past – how reliable are their memories? Begin to compare sources such as pictures/photographs of people/events in the past.	Begin to develop awareness that different versions of the past may exist and start to suggest reasons for this. Discuss and compare the reliability of photographs of people/events in the past.	Be aware that different versions of the past may exist and start to suggest reasons for this. Distinguish between different sources and compare different versions of the same story. Look at representations of the period – museum, cartoon etc.	Be aware that different versions of the past may exist and suggest reasons for this. Begin to evaluate the usefulness of different sources, including text books and their historical knowledge. Look at representations of the period – museum, cartoon etc.	Understand that the past is represented and interpreted in different ways and give reasons for this. Compare accounts of events from different sources – fact or fiction. Look at representations of the period – museum, cartoon etc.	Work out how conclusions were arrived at by linking sources and be aware that different evidence will lead to a variety of conclusions. Consider ways of checking the accuracy of interpretations – fact or fiction and opinion. Look at representations of the period – museum, cartoon etc.
