

What did you do at school today?

I can't remember ... nothing.

When you ask you child “What did you do at school today?” We can guess the response “I can’t remember” or “nothing” ... conversation over!

Here are some questions to ask to help keep the conversation going:

- What was the best thing that happened at school today?
- What was the hardest thing you overcame today?
- Tell me something that made you laugh today.
- Tell me about what you read in class today. What did your teacher read you today?
- What's the biggest difference between this year and last year?
- Who did you sit by at lunch today? What did you talk about?
- Can you show me/tell me about something you learned today?
- What part of school is your favourite?
- Tell me the name of two/three children you played with today?
- What was the most interesting/funny thing that your teacher said today?
- Tell me one interesting fact about your teacher?
- What's your favourite time of day at school?
- What are you looking forward to at school tomorrow?
- Did you get challenged with anything at school today?
- Were you able to finish all of your work today?
- Tell me about a new word you heard today at school.
- If I called your teacher what would he/she tell me about you?
- What subject/activity do you like the best? Why?
- Did anyone do something nice for you today? What did they do?
- How did you help someone today?
- Did you have any wow moments today? What were they?
- If you were the teacher, what would you do with the class tomorrow?

These are just a few ideas, maybe you can think of others – we'd love to hear about them so that we can share these with others. Enjoy your conversations with your child. 😊
